

David Buckley

Partner

Family

- Married to Eve
- Two wonderful kids - Grace (2003) and Michael (2005)

Education

- Completed both primary and secondary education in Hervey Bay – a foundation student at Hervey Bay Senior College (1986 - 1987)
- Bachelor of Law at the University of Queensland (1991)

Professional History

- After enjoying a period of not being a lawyer, David joined Gadens Ridgeway (now Gadens Lawyers) in Brisbane as an articled clerk (1995).
- Admitted as a solicitor in Queensland (November 1996).
- Subsequently worked with Brisbane CBD firm Halletts and stayed with them when they became Nicol Robinson Halletts before returning to Hervey Bay with his then fiancé, Eve.
- Practicing as a solicitor in Hervey Bay since 1999.
- David has extensive experience from his Brisbane days in commercial, property and banking and finance law, including work on unit developments and shopping centre developments.
- At Bell Dixon Butler, David has continued to practice almost exclusively in the commercial, property and strata title areas.
- David joined the Bell Dixon Butler Partnership on 1 January, 2008

Services

- Conveyancing
- Commercial and Property
- Industrial Relations

Current Practice

- All Commercial, Business and Property Matters
- Residential Conveyancing
- Business Sales, Purchases and Advice
- Commercial Property Acquisitions and Sales
- Leasing for both Tenants and Landlords
- Hotel, Liquor and Gaming Licensing
- Motels, Backpacker Hostels and Accommodation Businesses
- Property Development
- Unit Developments from Site Acquisition through to Financing and Sales
- Loan Agreements, mortgages, Bill of Sales and Security Work
- Trust documentation and advice
- Partnership agreements, advice, disputes and dissolutions
- Town planning advice

Personal Interests

- David and Eve married in Hervey Bay in 2000 and had their first child – a strapping Doberman named Zeus in February 2000. In September 2001, Athena, a dainty but definitely scatter-brained Dobe, arrived and they had their third child, Grace, in May 2003. To balance the ledger the boy Michael was born in May 2005.
- Before he had children, David was known to swim, run, play squash and golf (both badly) and take an unhealthy interest in Republican Rome. Since having children, he does as he is told.
- David is a member of the Governing Council of the Fraser Coast Anglican College.

